Impressions are the tender and deep moments, which leave eternal furrows in the sands of our memories.

They are simple scenes with those dear to us—images which portray the splendor of friendship, the joy of learning and laughing together, the beauty of young and old living in harmony and respect.

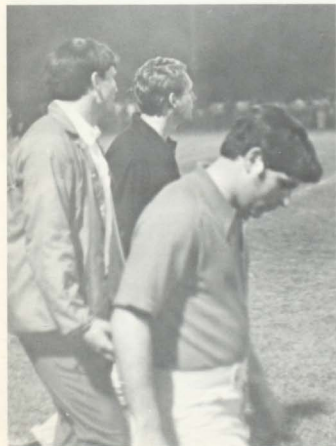

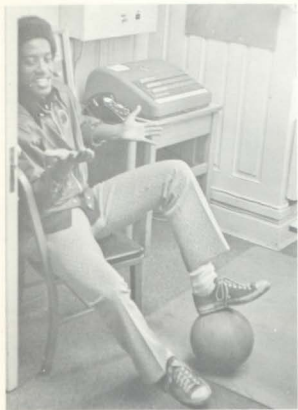

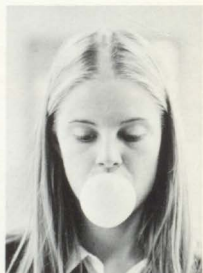

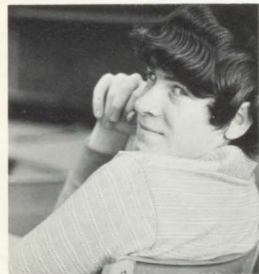

Impressions are difficult stages—times of fear, growth, and pain, when one understanding teacher can touch the heart and mind of an innocent student seeking his own identity or caught in a seemingly inescapable trouble.

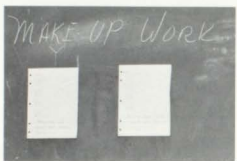

By, far, impressions are most frequently happy because of the innate love we all possess. They are peaceful afternoons in which two pupils gazing into a microscope grasp a fundamental truth about themselves as well as their subject.

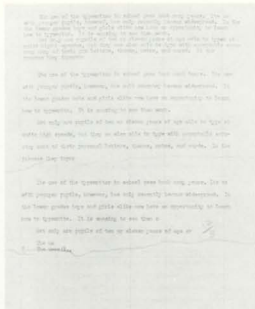

They are lectures which go beyond the everyday material and reach the latent genius in some lonely student.

They are the fires of hope and friendship,
kindled by the sharing
of knowledge.

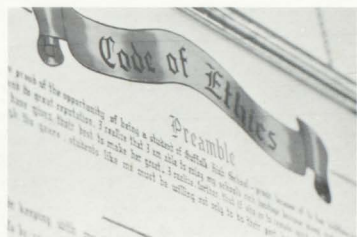

Impressions are the events which possess some special quality which converts the ordinary to the extraordinary and causes certain events to linger in the mind. It is these impressions engraved upon our souls which we will carry with us when we leave Suffolk High School. They will guide us in our futures, comforting us when we need the poignant remembrance of them. With this annual, we have tried to capture some of these impressions in the hope that parts of each of us can remain in unity, though we each go our separate ways.

Dedication

In this fifty-first edition of the PEANUT, the senior class would like to recognize one who has attained the highest honor we can bestow — our respect. With a vast storehouse of knowledge, wisdom, and good humor, this individual maintains an excellence of character which uplifts our faith in people and encourages us to greater heights. To try to mentally isolate this person from Suffolk High School would be virtually impossible, for she is the embodiment of all that we love and revere in the academic community. Therefore, with the utmost admiration, we dedicate this annual to

to a guy named John,
I've known you since
we were six years old.
Remember all the good times
we spent together in your

all that is past us now
and I'm looking toward
senior year and college.
All I can say is good luck and the best life has
